ANDREW'S PICKS FOR HISTORICAL FICTION BOOKS ON HOOPLA

Carnegie's Maid by Marie Benedict

This was a very readable and interesting take on the story of Andrew Carnegie told through the eyes of a fictitious maid. Through this device, the reader learns about life in America in the mid to late 1800's. A great book for a book club discussion.

The Boston Girl by Anita Diamant

I recently picked this for the library book club, and everyone loved it. A very immersive look into the immigrant experience at the early part of the 20th century. It touched on so many issues that people at that time faced, prejudice, poverty, disease. An excellent work by a consummate writer.
