

No Bake Cookies

Over the weekend I decided to make a favorite sweet for my family. They remind me of my Grandmother because she taught me how to make them. They are comforting and your house will smell delicious! The recipe doesn't use flour, which can be hard to come by these days. Quick and easy. Enjoy!

No Bake Cookies

- 1 stick of butter
- 2 c. granulated sugar
- 1/4 c. cocoa
- 1/2 c. milk
- 1 c. peanut butter (smooth or chunky)
- 1 t. vanilla
- 3 c. oatmeal

Melt butter in large sauce pan. Add sugar, cocoa and milk. Bring to rapid boil. Let boil for one minute. Add peanut butter. Take pan off burner. Mix well and add vanilla. Then add oatmeal and stir quickly. Drop by spoonful on parchment paper. Let cool. Enjoy!
